

SKETCHINGS OF EMINENT PERSONALITIES

Sathi Raju Shankar Narayana (76) of Thiruanmiyur, Chennai, has made a total of 1,400 portraits and sketches of eminent personalities, including philosophers, politicians, musicians and various industrialists, as on December 2011. He used ink, charcoal, pencil and A4 size papers to create these sketches.

MINIATURE CARVING ON PUJA SUPARI

Manish Jhawar (born on August 7, 1969) of Indore, Madhya Pradesh, has carved a total of 2,000 betel nuts (supari) for creating the idols of Hindu God, Goddesses and various monuments. He uses betel nuts that are offered in puja and a cutter to carve the idols with.

SRI RAMA WRITTEN ON PALM LEAVES

Subba Rayudu Prathapa Venkata (born on April 30, 1968) of Sainikpuri, Secunderabad, Andhra Pradesh, has written 'Sri Rama' in Telugu language for 1,30,000 times on both sides of 1,000 palm leaves within a year, between January 2010 and January 2011.

GANESHA IN ALPHABETS

Anjali Sahu (born on June 1, 1993) has created different types of Ganeshas in English alphabet from A to Z measuring 21 cm x 17 cm and also 53 Ganeshas in Devanagiri Alphabet (Hindi). These Ganeshas are drawn in such a way that if a person looks at them, he can find English and Hindi Alphabet in those Ganeshas. She completed her art of making these English Alphabet in 15 days and Devanagiri Alphabet (Hindi) in 30 days.